Old Business:

- Parents Night Out at the Salt Water Club was a success. Approximately 35 people were in attendance and took home some nice prizes that were donated for a raffle table. This was not a fundraising event but just under $600 was made for PTO.
- Jacobs Express Day went very well. The 2019 theme was Hawaiian Christmas. Very good feedback from staff and volunteers.
- Scratch Ticket raffle was a success and Cindy Whalen took home the book of scratch tickets. This will be a fundraiser we will do again soon. A profit of $2100 was made.

New Business:

- Teacher Dinner and Conference are coming up for both the HS (1/29) & MMS (1/30). Planning is ongoing and in good shape. The online signups will be live soon and there will be more spots for Venmo donations.
- MMS Book Fair has been moved by one week to the week of 1/21-1/31 due to the extra day off on the original scheduled week making that only a 3 day week. Set up will be the week before and for the first time in a number of years we will be open at night during Parent Teacher Conferences.

- Read-A-Thon is fast approaching and will run for both JS & MMS 1/31-2/9 with prize assembly on 2/14. PTO has purchased 3 kindles as prizes and other prizes are still being organized and will be announced closer to kick off and new this year at the MMS prizes will be announced daily. The fundraising goal is to break $10,000.
- Lenny's Hideaway in Cohasset has reached out to us and as part of their 1 year anniversary week they are donating 10% of their sales each night the week of 2/4-2/7 to different school organizations. If we would like we could have the 10% donation for the night of 2/4 go towards Hull PTO. Amy will reply and accept this offer.

Ongoing Business: 2019/2020 PTO Goals:

- Jen Lofgren has received $500 State Street grant
- Subcommittee to work on a grand for MMS & HS from Dicks Sporting Goods.
- Cari Resnick wrote a nice article in the Hull Time about Jacobs Express
